Local SHOPS AND POST OFFICES

1 Madley Post Office- 3 miles

Located at Whitehall Stores in Madley village (HR2 9LS), this is a fully stocked Post Office offering the usual postal services, travel money, vehicle tax, and parcel drop-off. It's your closest and most convenient option for everyday errands, and sits right in the heart of the village.

2 Kingstone Stores- 4.7 miles

A local Post Office and shop in Kingstone village offering fresh food sourced locally and nationally, along with a good range of groceries, beers, and wines. Your closest option for topping up on essentials without a long drive.

3 Peterchurch Post Office- 5 miles

Located in Peterchurch- It's the gateway Post Office if you're heading deeper into the Golden Valley, and handles the full range of essential items as well postal and financial services.

4 Hay-On-Wye Post Office- 12.7 miles

Now situated within Country Supplies on Oxford Road, the Post Office in Hay-on-Wye handles the full range of postal services including passport Check & Send, foreign currency, travel money, vehicle tax, and parcel drop-off. As with the Co-op, a trip here is a great excuse to spend a bit of time in the town itself — Hay-on-Wye is one of those places that rewards a wander, with its world-famous bookshops, independent cafés, and the beautiful River Wye right on its doorstep

Local SUPERMARKETS

1

Tesco Belmont- 8.2 miles

Your nearest large supermarket for a full weekly shop. Tesco Belmont carries the full range; fresh produce, groceries, clothing, and household essentials with ample parking and a petrol station on site. Straightforward and reliable when you need everything under one roof.

2

Fodder Wholefoods- 9.4 miles

Hereford's only independent wholefood shop, stocking organic produce, artisan breads, organic fresh fruit and vegetables, gluten-free products, an animal-friendly bodycare range, vitamins, minerals, supplements and tinctures. It's been open since 1978, making it something of a Hereford institution. If you're after something organic, ethically sourced, or just a bit more thoughtful than the supermarket shelf, Fodder is the place. It sits on a lovely semi-pedestrianised street at the end of the cathedral close - well worth the wander

3

Waitrose Hereford- 9.4 miles

Fresh, quality food is at the heart of what Waitrose does - championing British produce, supporting responsible sourcing, treating people fairly, and treading lightly on the environment. Located in the Old Market Shopping Centre, it's a solid choice when you want a broader range than the village shops can offer, with a strong fresh food and own-brand selection. Good for stocking up properly if you're settling in for a longer stay.

4

Oakchurch Farm Shop- 5.5 miles

Often called the "Harrods of Herefordshire," Oakchurch is a sprawling farm shop at Staunton-on-Wye with over 90 local suppliers - a culinary showcase for the region. You'll find a food hall with butchery, deli and fresh produce, a garden centre with over 10,000 locally grown plants, homeware, gifts, fashion, and a popular restaurant. Well worth the short drive for a proper browse.

5

Co-op Hay-on-wye- 13.3 miles

A well-stocked supermarket in the picturesque market town of Hay-on-Wye, the perfect excuse to combine a grocery run with a wander around one of the world's most famous book towns. Hay itself is a destination, lined with independent bookshops, cafés, and antique shops, so it's well worth building a bit of time around the visit.

Local TOWNS Hay-On-Wye

1

Hay Castle

Part Norman, part Jacobean and part Victorian, Hay Castle has been a home to invaders, a patriots' citadel, a country manor and a world-famous bookshop a thousand years of history in the heart of the town. Restored by the Hay Castle Trust with over £5 million from the National Lottery Heritage Fund, the castle opened to the public for the first time in its history in May 2022, now serving as a centre for arts, literature and learning. Worth a visit on any trip into Hay.

TripAdvisor Rating: 4.3

2

Shepherds Parlour

A coffee shop and ice cream parlour serving homemade, locally sourced food alongside artisan sheep's milk ice cream from Shepherds Ice Cream. The sheep's milk ice cream is the real draw, with flavours ranging from Lebanese coffee to peanut butter and chocolate, and vegan and dairy-free options available too. A Hay institution and a must-stop, particularly on a warm day.

TripAdvisor Rating: 4.2

3

The Granary

A family-run restaurant in a beautifully restored Grade II listed building formerly a wool store serving fresh, homemade dishes made with seasonal, locally sourced produce. Spread across two atmospheric floors with seating for 160 inside and pavement tables out front, it's been a Hay institution since 1979.

TripAdvisor Rating: 3.8

3

Foyles at Glasbury

A carefully restored Grade II listed coaching inn in the pretty riverside village of Glasbury-on-Wye, just upstream from Hay, offering a stylish restaurant with eleven individually designed rooms. Named after the famous bookshop with a nod to the nearby literary town, the restaurant is headed by Rosette-winning chefs making the most of seasonal and locally sourced produce. A lovely spot for lunch, dinner or an afternoon tea — and a great base for exploring the area.

TripAdvisor Rating: 4.4

Local TOWNS Ledbury

1

The Verzons

Widely considered the best hotel in Herefordshire, with spacious individually styled rooms, a warm and intimate bar, and a terrace and deck looking out towards the Malvern Hills. The food and service are consistently praised, with locally sourced produce, a strong wine list and some seriously good Chase cocktails. A brilliant spot for dinner, afternoon tea or an overnight stay. Pairs particularly well with a tour of the nearby Chase Distillery.

Trip Advisor Rating: 4.4

2

The Feathers Hotel

A much-loved part of Ledbury's history, The Feathers is a cosy, truly traditional coaching inn standing proudly on the High Street for over 400 years, full to the brim with character and charm. With 20 individually designed bedrooms, an AA Rosette award-winning restaurant and a coffee shop that draws in locals and visitors alike, it's the heart of the town. Dog-friendly too.

Trip Advisor Rating 4.5

3

The Ledberry

A small independent family-run townhouse where guests can sit in the secret garden to enjoy lunch and cakes alongside coffee, cocktails or wine, with a boutique upstairs featuring timeless fashion and curated gifts. One of those places that's a little bit more than just a cafe, and all the better for it.

Trip Advisor Rating 4.6

4

The Nest

Set on 14 acres of rewilded Herefordshire farmland three miles west of Ledbury, The Nest combines a relaxed family and dog-friendly cafe with a farm shop and an RHS gold-winning plant centre, with woodland trails, a heritage orchard and a lake to explore. Quirky decor, locally sourced food and the famous handmade scotch eggs make it a proper destination rather than just a pitstop.
